

Ms Om devi Malla Member of legislative Parliament of Nepal and Vice chairperson of National Cooperative Federation of Nepal. She has been also working as a chairperson of Reliable Saving and Credit Cooperative Kathmandu Nepal since 2002.

She has completed Diploma in Cooperative Education and Management course from New Delhi, India and Masters' degree in Social Science from Tribhuvan University Nepal. She has been working in cooperative sector since 1998 mostly focusing in the field of leadership development and cooperative movement activities and lobbying with parliamentarian to formulate and endorse new cooperative act as a legislator in the parliament of Nepal. She always feel comfortable and proud to render her service for the betterment of cooperative sector and believe that cooperative could be a reliable tool to bring economic development and upgrade the living standard of common people in the country. she is famous as a renowned cooperative leader in Nepal.